ORIGEN BIOMEDICAL, INC. NAMED A TOP BIOTECH COMPANY IN THE '22 POWDERKEG UNVALLEY AWARDS

Digital community for tech companies, investors, and professionals presents the annual awards to recognize the best tech companies to work for across the United States

AUSTIN, 15 FEB 2022: OriGen Biomedical, Inc., a global medical device manufacturer of cryopreservation, cell culture, and respiratory products has been announced as a winning company in the 2022 Powderkeg Unvalley Awards. This recognizes OriGen Biomedical as one of the best tech companies to work for in emerging tech communities beyond Silicon Valley.

The award-winning companies were selected based on data collected from the companies for their company profile on Powderkeg, supplemented with publicly available third-party data. Companies are able to add data to their Powderkeg profile including company size, perks and benefits, funding, industry, and employee testimonials. The data was validated by CLA, a top 10 accounting firm and Powderkeg National Corporate Member.

Over 1,000 winners were recognized in each of the following categories:

- Top Fintech Companies
- Top SaaS Companies
- Top Biotech Companies
- Top Cybersecurity Companies
- Top Robotics Companies
- Top Education Technology Companies
- Top Health Tech Companies
- Top Tech Companies
- Best Tech Companies to Work For
- Best Remote Companies to Work For
- Companies With the Best Work Life Balance
- Companies With the Best Benefits

OriGen was included in the “Top Biotech Companies” category. Powderkeg announced the award winners on December 7, 2021. The winning companies were recognized at a national level.
